2. 24.10.2008 Heard both the sides.

The case relates to a racket of withdrawing an amount of Rs. 1.60 lacs by prematurely closing different Recurring Deposit accounts as also MIS accounts by forging the signatures of the account holders. The petitioner at the relevant time was the Sub-Post Master of Begumpur Post Office in the Patna Postal Division. During the enquiry the petitioner admitted that he had deeply conspired and acted in defrauding the account holders by defalcating and defrauding the account holders under different heads. These are indicated in the long drafted F.I.R. and thus, do not permit the court to direct release of the petitioner on bail.
